

Loyaulte Me Lie

Tune: London New, A.M. 373 This Endris Nyght, E.H. 20 Middleham (Routh)

*The Lord my God is ever true,
Faithful and sure is He;
He will not fail, but dare I say
Such loyalty binds me?*

*I know that if I turn at need
He at my side will be:
Can He depend upon my truth?
Doth loyalty bind me?*

*O Lord, Thou knowest I am weak
My doubts and fears dost see:
But Thou canst build in lasting strength
My loyalty to Thee*

*I think of those who went before,
In Thy true service free,
And did proclaim by word and deed
Their loyalty to Thee:*

*Firm bound to Thee and to their friends,
In faith and fealty,
Where duty led, where honour lay
Strong was their loyalty*

*To Thee I pray, O Christ most sure,
As I do trust in Thee,
To Thee, to land and home and friends,
Let loyalty bind me. Amen.*
